ANIMATION ON A BACKGROUND

"SNOWMAN"

My main inspiration for the drawing style was animated movie "Frozen".

In the design of my protagonist character I used complex colors which display variation in the hue itself, colors with noticeable contrast (warm-cold, light-dark). I also used textures such as snow for the body of my character or texture of blue fabric on a hat.

I used a small black stroke (1pt) in designing some elements of Snowman to highlight contrast for example between white body and white hands.

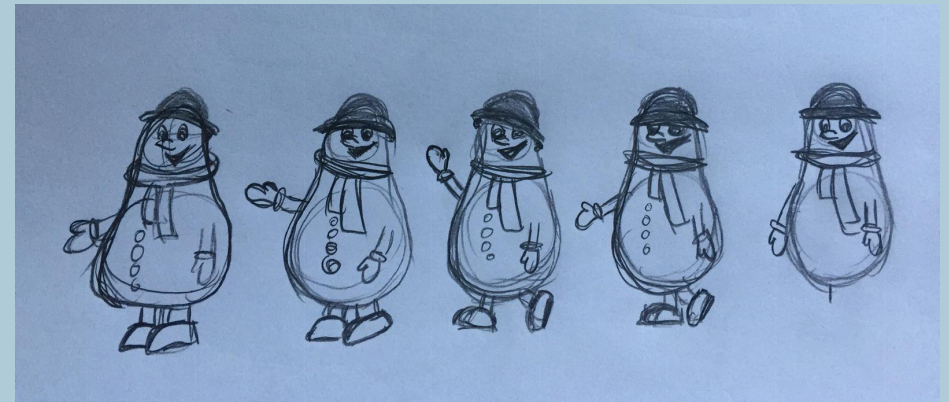

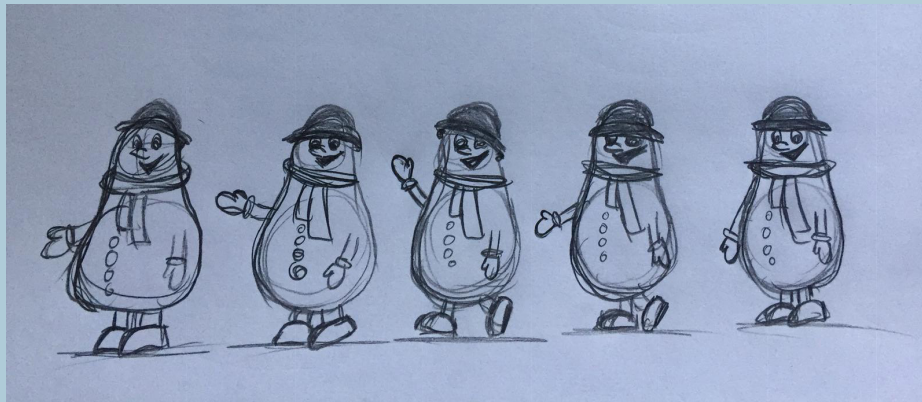

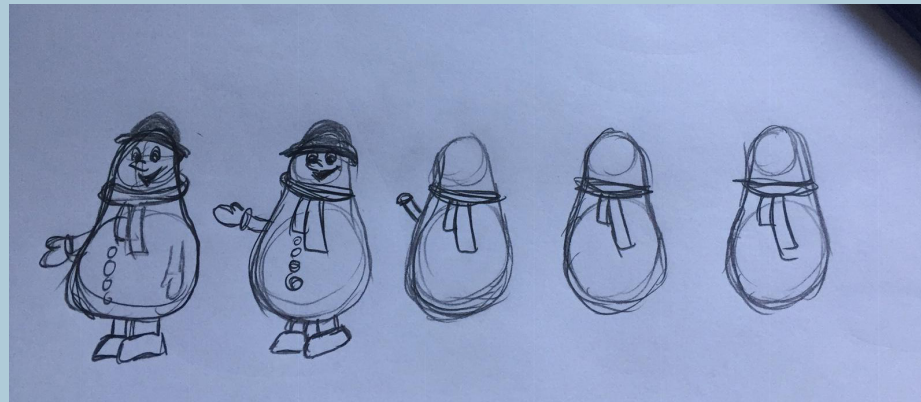

From my research I found out that animated characters like snowman are based on rounded shapes, that is why I mostly used circles in sketching body and clothes for character (rounded gloves, shoes, buttons).

Sketches of walk-cycle animation, final sprite drawn in illustrator with all the frames of animation.
